JANUARY 2011

EDGEWATER, MARYLAND

MESSAGE FROM THE Exalted Ruler

Aim For The Sun, you may not reach it, but you will fly higher than if you never aimed at all!

This month, we are back to "Membership", if you sign up three new or reinstated members, your lodge will present you with a $25 gift certificate, plus an Elks shirt, also the Grand Lodge has incentives for you, please refer back to your August 2010 ElkHorn newsletter for qualification criteria, by going to our website www.elks622.net then go to newsletters. When you have your quota, let your Exalted Ruler or

Lodge Secretary Earl Schellman PDD/PSP/PGLC know. The membership drive is on, let's see who recruits the most! Thus far, Bob Riggins, PER and Carol Riggins, PER have met our lodge's criteria, and each will receive a $25 gift certificate and an Elks shirt. Will you be next? Members' please recruit your friends and neighbors, then you can be proud of them as Members' of the lodge, once they are voted on and have gone through Initiation.
To "ALL" DELINQUENT MEMBERS', I urgently request that you pay your dues as once you become an inactive member, you forfeit all of your rights and privileges that were afforded to you as a member of the B.P.O.E. when you first joined., so maintain your "good standing" in the B.P.O.E. by keeping your dues current. www.elksbenefits.com

I, note, many of our Members' have either new e-mail addresses, have changed their telephone number or have moved and failed to notify the Secretary of the lodge with the new information.

Please e-mail the Secretary with the new and/or corrected information so our records can be updated and it will ensure that you receive your ElkHorn monthly newsletter. Thank you, it would be greatly appreciated.

Behind the bar in the lounge, tickets for a large screen TV are on sale, the raffle tickets are $5 each or 5 for $20, drawing on January 08, 2011 at the lodge. Will "you" be the lucky winner? You need to purchase a ticket (s) in order to have a chance to "win". Good Luck?

Ritual Contest Judging was held at our lodge on Nov. 17th, 2010,
First Place, Highest Score went to Mary O'Brien, Esteemed Leading Knight, she was Top Officer. Second Place, High Score went to Carol Riggins, PER our Chaplain. Congratulations to you, both!!!

Our lodge had a regular business meeting on December 01, 2010, my sincere thanks to the members' of our lodge who did attend this meeting. John McMickle, PER filled in as Inner Guard and Joan Wald filled in as Chaplain at this meeting. Thank you Joan and John for filling in both of the positions, it was nice of you and very much appreciated.

Our lodge's Memorial Service was held on December 05, 2010 and John Wald, PER was kind enough to fill in as Esteemed Loyal Knight during the service. Thank you, John for taking on this role. My sincere thanks to all in attendance. It was nice of you to come out and pay respect to our deceased members' and to your deceased loved ones.

Members', Have you noticed all of the decorations and decorated trees in the lodge? This would not have happened if it wasn't for John Wald, PER who helped to gather all the decorations and the "Ladies Of The Elks #622", coming forth.
The holiday decorations were done by the following Volunteers, whom, when you see them in the lodge, please thank them. It took approximately four hours to decorate the lodge, nonstop.
These loyal and dedicated "ladies", are to be commended for their caring and diligence. They are always there, to support us, and we should all be proud of each of them. They help the lodge in many ways and we are most grateful for their tireless past and continued support. Volunteers who did the holiday decorations this year are:

Nancy Claffey, she informed me that she helped to decorate when the lodge was on Rowe Blvd. and has been volunteering her services, ever since. Nancy brought "all" of her Family/Relatives in to help decorate our lodge on December 04, 2010 and what a terrific job they did., their names are: Bunny Mazzola, Jeanne Scott, John Wells, Danielle Hood and the President of the "Ladies of the Elks #622" Marian Knode.

Thanks, Ladies for a job well done, we appreciate you and are proud of you. Thanks to you, our lodge has the Holiday spirit look and the decorations are beautiful. Finally, John Wald, PER, he put the pretty blue lights on the front of the lodge and they can be seen out on the highway. The Christmas tree outside in the front of the building was decorated by Bernard and Anna.

Our Tuesday Night dinners, have been quite successful, and we have our "wonderful" Faithful Members' to thank for that. You may have noticed youths: Madeline McArdle, who is Betty Huckenpoehler's Grand' daughter and her friend is: Rocio Recinos, serving food on the food line at Tuesday night dinners,
They are both Volunteers and are working toward points/credits with their school work. They say they enjoy doing this and they have also learned other things to do in the lodge to help out..
Thank you youths. Madeline and Rocio, our lodge and I appreciate your help and we like your courtesy and smiles.

ELKSCARE - ELKSSHARE.

ELKS HORN NEWSLETTER

Please get your tickets early, thank you! Don't miss this one!!!

The second Saturday in March 2011, Annual Bull Roast, food 2:30 p. m. til 5:00 p. m., Classic Case Band from 4:00 p. m. to 8:00 p. m. This will be a "sell out", so please purchase your tickets "early". For much to long, Jim McNally our Lodge and catering Manager has been overlooked for the professional job he does. He gives more than one hundred percent everyday. He is a professional and his expertise in his field shows it. Jim puts in many volunteer hours, above and beyond the "call of duty", he wears many hats, whereby he has saved our lodge money by his volunteer efforts. He continues to rent the hall which helps financially to keep our doors open as our overhead expenses are tremendous. True, Jim gets paid for being the Lodge and Catering Manager, but today, I am applauding his volunteer tireless and devoted hours. I really don't know how he accomplishes all of the many tasks he has daily and at times he works under pressure, but continues to carry out and fulfill his duties and responsibilities. Members', please thank Jim when you see him, let him know that he is appreciated and his hard work and volunteerism hasn't gone unnoticed. Thank you, Jim and Congratulations for all you do and will continue to do!!!

ELK OF THE MONTH: Ricky Lowman, House Committee Chairman. Ricky is doing an excellent job and is putting in many volunteer hours at the lodge. He volunteers as a weekend Bartender, volunteers his services at the lodge on Tuesday night dinners, and other nights at the lodge when meals are served. Ricky is in charge of the House Committee Rules and Regulations, plans for special shrimp and steak nights at the lodge and is diligent in his volunteer duties. He also takes care of the 50/50 raffle especially at our Tuesday Night dinners. Thanks Ricky for a job well done, you are appreciated and we know you will continue to be an asset to your lodge. Members', Please thank Ricky, when you see him, I'm sure he would appreciate that.

Last but, not least, All Children shall be accompanied by an adult when in the lodge and we ask that you know where your children are and watch them as at times our lodge gets very busy and our volunteers have to move quickly and cannot watch children underfoot and we do not wish to see any of the children or volunteers falling or getting hurt. Thank you, for your cooperation, it is greatly appreciated. Also please, go with your children into the dining room where food is served and help them with a dessert or whatever need be so they will not be underfoot of our members' who come in to dine, it will make for safety for all of us. Thank you.

Sincerely and Fraternally,

Rick's Matrix

Random ravings from the Loyal Knight

Be careful what you ask for. Somebody out there is liable to let you have it. And, yes, now I'm getting it! Now don't get the idea that this is a bad thing. It really isn't. Let me explain... (dot, dot, dot)

In the issue before last (was that October?), I mentioned that I would welcome ideas from you about future activities at the lodge that would be "exciting to attend" and suggestions regarding ways to keep you informed.

I fully expected these words to fall on deaf ears, but - wait - not so fast, Rick, there are people out there who actually listen! In other words, thanks for your response!! I am taking your suggestions to heart and will be doing my best to see what I can do to implement those I have received. Send more. I have a large mailbox.

For instance, if you would like e-mail notices about what's coming up and the details that go with 'em, send us an email request and we'll put you on the list. Then you'll at least have ONE thing in your mail box you actually asked for! And keep the suggestions coming. I love it! Besides, it helps knock the dust out of my mailbox.

Meanwhile, I am sorry, Jessica, that I typed in "Heather" instead of your name when I tried to thank you for your work at the Charity Ball. It was an honest mistake. I was tired and I'm pretty sure somebody spiked the punch.

I truly love the way the Charity Ball was received and this year it was definitely in the black. My great thanks to Leading Knight Mary O'Brien who did the lions share of the organizing and ticket sales!

Stay warm.

THANK YOU!

TOYS FOR TOTS

Toys for Tots

On behalf of all the smiling children, I would like to thank all those who contributed to the Toys for Tots drive this year. The collections were tremendous as usual, both in the quantity of toys and monetarily. I just know that the Annapolis Elks Lodge made a lot of less fortunate children happy this year. Your generosity, as always, is overwhelming.

Fraternally,
Lou Schmeltzer, PER, PDD

SECRETARY'S CORNER
TIME TO THINK 2011/2012 DUES !!!!

Another year has passed us by, and a bright New Year is upon us. As you all are aware a few years back, things were very trying for our Lodge, but through the efforts of many loyal members things were held together, and a bright new beginning came upon Annapolis Lodge #622, and our beautiful new lodge came about and our membership has grown since that time, but recently our we are losing members at an unbelievable rate. But, we not only need members in numbers, we need those who are willing to step up and keep our lodge moving forward, we need young members to step forward into lodge offices, and committee assignments with their new fresh ideas to move to lodge into the future.

I am sure many of you have been a little disappointed not to hear me harp on dues payments, so to keep up my good work of badgering, we still have 69 members owing 2009/2010 dues. And should your name be among those delinquents, please send in your check now so we can bring our listing down to "zero" and I am asking each of our members in good standing, to check the Delinquents listing posted on the members bulletin board, and contact anyone you know, and encourage them to pay their dues A.S.A.P.

I would also like to remind everyone that I will be sending each of you a dues renewal statement, the end of this month, the annual dues are ($117.00) $100 plus Grand Lodge & State Assn fees of $17.00 for Regular Members, and ($37.00) $20.00 plus Grand Lodge & State Assn fees of $17.00 for Life Members, and remember that dues must be paid on or before April the 1st 2011.

Due to a major change by the Grand Lodge in the procedure for printing& issuing Spouse identification cards, it will be necessary that you do not request Spouse cards when sending in you regular Member dues!!! As I will be unable to comply with this request. Sorry for this change in procedure that Grand Lodge changes have created.

Any Spouse of Widow wishing to have an I.D. card, will now have to make a separate request for same, and mail it to the Secretaries Office, together with a fee of $5.00 and a self addressed stamped envelope. Your I.D. cards will then be issued as quickly as possible, after the bulk of Member Cards have been issued, and it is further requested that any request for I.D. cards not be sent until at least the middle of April.

In closing I would like to extend to each of you, on behalf of my wife Pat and myself, our sincere wishes for a Prosperous New Year!

Fraternally,

Earl W. Schellman, PDD/PSP/PGLS

Secretary

Community Spirited ELKs

Not all Elk volunteer work is done at the Lodge. Many Elks are helping their communities by volunteering to coach youth sport activities. Long time member Bart Williams takes time from his construction business to coach Girls LaCrosse and Boys Football, Danny Ford coaches Girls Soccer and Jimmy Willson helps coach Boys Soccer and LaCrosse. We know more members are supporting other such activities and should receive recognition. Please submit their names to a Lodge Officer.

This organization is not affiliated with VA in any way.

VAS may be gaining access to military personnel through their close resemblance to the VA name and seal. Ladies of the Elks NEWS

Dear Ladies,
Happy New Year! I wish each of you a very happy, healthy 2011.

I hope you had a chance to see the lovely decorations at the Lodge in December. We had fun decorating and our favorite tree was the Ladies' tree in the bar area. The purple and gold decorations were beautiful.

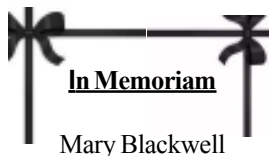

Our December luncheon featuring K&J Marketing was a huge success. Sixty-six ladies enjoyed a delicious lunch with friends and family as well as an afternoon of shopping — everything costing $6.00. We received 20% of the sales that day — over $400! Thanks to everyone for making this a success.

I am looking forward to seeing everyone at our next general meeting on January 24. We will be announcing the nominating committee at that meeting. Please consider stepping up and serving our organization as an officer.

“Life is partly what we make it, and partly what it is made by the friends we choose.”

~ Tennessee Williams quotes (American playwright, 1911-1983)

Happy New Year!
Marian
